TEEN DANCE LICENSE REVOCATION UPHELD

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Sheriff Joe O'Connor has been upheld by the Board of Supervisors in the revocation of the teenage dance license held by Lew Fay II for the Fayaton Building at Broadway and Olive in Lemon Grove.

The permit of the 24-year-old musician was revoked a few days after Jan. 23 when there was a near riot of almost 500 teenagers and young adults who could not gain admission to the building. The doors were closed when the agreed capacity of the building, a converted market, of 800 persons was reached.

Sheriff's Lt. Robert W. Randall, in sworn testimony, said that other young people kept arriving. He said they ignored repeated orders on loud speakers to disperse, threw bottles and rocks at officers and that they were not cleared from the area until 2:15 a.m. Sunday, two hours and 15 minutes after the dance hall was closed for the evening.

Randall said that since Fay got the permit in July after the county passed the teenage dance ordinance there have been about 25 arrests or detentions of juveniles at the building. Fourteen of these were on the night of Jan. 25.

The arrests were for drunkenness, possession of alcohol by minors, assault and battery, escape from custody of an officer and indecent exposure.

Randall said that there had been little trouble with similar locations in Spring Valley, El Cajon and Lakeside.

He said that private patrolmen were unable on Jan. 23 to control the crowd. He said that teenagers have little respect for "rent-a-cops", the term some times applied to private patrol men.

CITIZENS OBJECT

The revocation was supported by Paul Reynolds, business manager of the Lemon Grove School District, as president of the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club. Reynolds spoke at a meeting of 25 persons representing approximately that number of civic organizations, including churches and Parent-Teachers Association. Reynolds said that the vote was unanimous to uphold the sheriff's position.

Reynolds said, "We think Fay is a rather enterprising young man and we don't condemn teenagers in any general way, but this situation should not be allowed to continue."

Frank Armstrong, attorney and a leader in the recent abortive attempt at incorporation in Lemon Grove, said the publicity was not the kind that the community wants or can afford. He said that the license should remain revoked and that no similar license should be allowed in Lemon Grove.

Fay was not represented by an attorney nor did he come up with anything at all in the nature of a plan to cure the disturbances. He referred seve-

Military Order To Stage Massing of Colors Sunday

Henry A. Boney, County supervisor, will deliver the keynote talk at the second annual Massing of the Colors program Sunday at 2 p.m.

The ceremony is being staged by the Cajon Valley Chapter of the Military Order of the World Wars at Helix High School stadium in La Mesa.

Lt. Col. K. J. MacDonal AUS Ret., program chairman, said, major features will include music by the U. S. Naval Training Center Band and a Patriotic Flag Evolution Pagent by Marines from the Recruit Depot. There will also be 65 tto 70 stands of colors from youth, civic, veteran, church and military organizations.

According to Maj. L. J. Campbell, AUS Ret., the chapter commander, each chapter of the MOWW stages a Massing of the Colors to instill in citizens an awareness of his country's flag and it's meaning. The chapter's program is dedicated to the nation's leaders, past, present and future. "It is for this reason," Campbell said, "that we selected the period between Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays."

In addition to Boney's talk on patriotism, he will also read a resolution adopted last week by the County Board of Supervisors. In the resolution the board proclaimed Sunday, Feb. 21, as "A day of patriotic meditation in San Diego County. to recapitulate the true meaning of the constitution of the United States and the many blessings it affords."

The women are, from left to right, Mrs. Robert Tucker, Mrs. William Jackson and Mrs. Richard McDonald. Mrs. McDonald is chairman of the heart coin cake committee. The club members have distributed and are maintaining approximately 50 cakes in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area during February. All money collected through the heart cakes will be turned over to the San Diego Heart Association.

3 To Run In L.G. Fire Race

Three candidates including the incumbent, are running for a seat on the board of the Lemon Grove Local Fire District in an election to be held April 6.

The incumbent is Clarence "Skip" Heidick, a salesman who lives at 2612 Nida st. He has served as a fire commissioner for the past 6 years.

Robert G. Vaught, a camera shop operator of 1514 Watwood, is seeking to unseat Heidick. Vaught, a former commissioner, was unseated iin 1964 by Parker Shumate. Vaught has served as a commissioner for 6 years.

A newcomer to the race, John L. Hall of 1811 El Prado, a salesmanager, has also filed for the race.

Polling places will probably be at three sites, one of which will be the fire station on Central near Imperial. The other locations will be announced by the board later. Last year's election was held only at the fire station.

Local Doctors Attend Symposium

Si Brumbaugh, M.D., of Lemon Grove, was moderator Sunday of the Lederle Laboratories symposium on "Advances in Medicine."

The all day study was held at El Cortez and was attended by 600 county medical doctors including George Brassington, Myron Fessler, Edwin Grubbs, Frank Hattox and Sam Smith, all from the Lemon Grove area.

The symposium was sponsored jointly by the San Diego Medical Society and the San Diego Chapter of the Academy of General Practice. Membership in the Academy requires 50 hours of post graduate education every year. Studies such as the one held Sunday is one of the means by which doctors can gain required credit.

BONEY TO STUDY CITIZENS' COMMITTEE ON ZONING

Supervisor Henry Boney, making his first appearance at the Lemon Grove Men's Club since his election, touched on a wide range of county matters before dealing with strictly local problems.

In one, that of local zoning, he said he would consider sympathetically setting up a citizens advisory committee in the east county. He admitted that zoning was a problem in the Spring Valley, Casa de Oro and Mt. Helix areas. He reported that petitions are being ciruclated asking the removal of planning Commissioner Gilbert Ray, of Casa de Oro.

Boney said that Ray had been appointed for a six year term just a few weeks ago. "He was Mr. Bird's (David Bird, who Boney unseated) campaign organizer so it would not appear proper for me to try to get him off the commission."

Ray was not present at the meeting. Boney admitted that Ray probably couldn't be removed. "He will have to remain if he wishes," Boney said.

He discussed the dance hall situation (he said it had been bad) and the improvement of Broadway (we'll approve it if an acceptable plan is presented to the County) and the Chamber of Commerce (we haven't treated county chambers fairly in finances").

In other matters he discussed the merging of the County Hospital with the University of California Medical School, a proposed women's honor camp, and the formation of a public defender's branch of government.

"I don't know how I will vote on all of these issues," he said. "But as a representative of all the people in my district I want to supply all the needed things that are justifiable."

Program Chairman Chuck Buckles reported that Sheriff Joe O'Connor will be speaker Friday. The club meets weekly at Michael's at noon for a no-host luncheon. All males may attend.

EASY AS 2 PLUS 2 — Math Teacher Plato Arapostathis of Palm Avenue Junior High School points out the answer for members of his class in modern math for parents. The class members are Mrs. Donald Johnson, standing, Norman Polakowski, and Mrs. Charles Blackburn. There are 110 parents enrolled in the two classes in modern math being conducted at the Lemon Grove School. Classes are sponsored by the Grossmont High School Adult Education.

Modern Math Brings Parents Back To The Classroom In Lemon Grove

It's a brand new science—and to many parents with teenagers in school, it's almost unfathomable.

It's the new concept of mathematics — modern math it is called. It is being taught in two classes, a night a week each at the junior high school in Lemon Grove. There are two classes because 110 parents turned out for the original class and it was so large it had to be broken into two.

The reason for the math class popularity, according to Palm Avenue Junior high school math teacher Plato Arapostathis, is that mom and pop and junior don't speak the same language in math anymore. So classes, under the sponsorship of the Grossmont High School Adult Education program, are supplying the orientation.

"Many adults have difficulty in learning the new math concept," Arapostathis said. "It's because they first have to unlearn the way they learned it years ago."

"Throughout the state," he explained, "parents are wondering why they can no longer help their youngsters with elementary, junior and high school math homework.

"Those parents are being confronted not only by something that has swept the state, but it has swept the whole country," the teacher said.

Yet, those who are flexible enough mentally to accept the newer concepts find that modern math is nothing to be afraid of. A few never begn to understand it.

Teacher Arapostathis would not estimate whether the percentage of adults who have little difficulty for math was equal to youngsters who never quite seem to grasp the science.

"Well," he said, "some of the parents are a good many years away from school."

The classes, which are being held once a week, are open to the public. A $1 registration fee is required.

Loble Law Curbs Juvenile Crime

District Judge Lester H. Loble of Helena, Montana has set new criteria for handling juvenile felons by open court hearings.

While others are wailing about juvenile delinquency's growth, Judge Loble managed to get the "Loble" State law passed. The statute is simple. It provides that when a juvenile commits a felony, he is tried in open court. A felony is an offense for which he would be liable to imprisonment, in the State Penitentiary if he were an adult.

The effect of publicity on the family quickly overcomes its apathy. Behind closed doors, under the old law, Judge Loble saw juveniles and their parents laugh at the law. No one knew who these people were and the good youngsters suffered with the bad. But in open hearings the family responds as a unit. He said a decrease of 49 per cent in juvenile felony cases is a result in his district — after the program had been in effect only three years.

Judge Loble told a recent gathering of the Washington Newspaper Publishers' Association that:

1. The twin enemies of crime are fear of punishment and fear of publicity.

2. Secrecy in juvenile courts indicts the class and does not pinpoint the individual.

3. If a youth is old enough and tough enough to topple a tombstone, wreck a church or a schoolhouse, hold up a filling station, snatch a woman's purse or beat up an old man, he is old enough and tough enough to have a public trial with his parents in the front row and full newspaper coverage.

4. It is outrageous, in so many places, to find the law suddenly cringing before its hoodlum youngsters and going to absurd lengths to stay on the right side of them.

5. There is no such word as juvenile anymore. It is juvenile delinquent. This is not fair to the good kids about whom we don't say enough.

6. Open courts establish public confidence. The public is

Lecturer Tells Of Christian Science

A man's awareness of what is really going on around him depends upon the element of "Spiritual perception," said a Christian Science lecturer in Lemon Grove on Saturday.

"True sight is spiritual," said Martin N. Heafer, and without this "spiritual sense" man is for all practical purposes asleep.

Most of us are somewhere in the process of gradually waking up, he indicated, quoting the Bible: "It is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed" (Romans).

Heafer's public lecture was sponsored by Lemon Grove Christian Science Society and held in the Masonic Auditorium. He is a recognized practitioner of Christian Science in Houston, Texas, and is currently on tour as a member of the Board of Lectureship of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. entitled to know what happens to the juvenile hoodlum.

7. The juvenile problem can be solved!

Boiled down to its barest essence, Judge Loble's philosophy is simply to get the juvenile felon and his parents into an open court. Then the natural result of a free court and a free press will do most of the rest.

Make All Pay The Tax Bill

Soon your income tax bill will arrive in a cheery little envelope.

Probably you'll get a note in it from your government explaining that your tax bill is your share of the cost of doing business for freedom, and that the government, responsive to the will of the public, does it in the manner and in the amounts the public demands.

You will then note that the government's bookkeeping system slipped a cog and that more should have been withheld for the amount of income you received. The reason for the discrepancy is that the new tax rate, and the tax rate schedule sent to employes, did not dovetail. The end result is that although you got a tax reduction, your tax bill will be for more than the amount withheld.

All of this has been talked about for many weeks and is not a sudden revelation through these columns. It will not be a revelation either when the tax collector makes his demand for the difference — right now!

The reason all of this is reviewed is to put it in a more rational perspective. We can't avoid paying the tax bill, because it is owing and due. But while we are drawing upon our resources to meet the tax demand, let us demand that our lawmakers put the heat on our foreign cousins, some of whom are our enemies, and demand payment from them. Russia owes the government $631 millions. Yugoslavia owes $78 millions. France owes $6 billions and doesn't even pay the interest any more. Neither does Great Britain with a bill here of over $9 billions. In varying amount Soviet satellites who are owing us since World War I include Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland, Estonia, Latvia and Romania.

We ought to demand that these obligations be paid off before we pay this or future income taxes. The obligation was incurred from our taxes which we paid in good faith. Let Uncle Sam collect this dough and deduct it from our tax bill. Otherwise, we are paying the bill twice — once when it was loaned and again to make good the loan.

A note to your Congressman might help convince him that such a requirement is a fair requirement!

TEEN DANCE . . .

ral times to remarks of sheriff's officers to the effect that he had run a good operation in so far as he was able and that there were no disturbances inside the hall.

He said that he had more than the number of private patrolmen and chaperones at the dances that he had run than are required by the county ordinance. Lt. Randall, under questioning by Fay, said of the private patrolmen, "They did the best they could."

Lt. Quentin D. Cash, in charge of the sheriff's reserve officer group, said that for the three Saturdays prior to Jan. 23 he had a platoon of the trained but unpaid reserves at the hall. On the night of the 23rd, he said that a second 16-man patrol was called and that there was a total of 51 sheriff's officers at the scene plus three Highway Patrol units.

ANTICIPATED TROUBLE

Cash told County News Association that he had expected trouble at Fayaton because of the growing number of reports crossing his desk at the main office.

Cash told the board that on Jan. 23 orders from the loud speakers had little effect on the assembled crowd except that the groups of teenagers would move short distances but without leaving the scene. He said that they moved to other locations around the building.

Merchants, he said, complained of petty theivery and mischief. On two occasions, he said, officers found 13 and 14 year old girls on the scene with no way to get home. He said the girls said that they were to be picked up by their parents a half hour or more after the hall closed by midnight.

OVERCROWDING IS CAUSE

Both sides to the controversy agreed that the major cause of the trouble was overcrowding of the hall. The doors of the hall were closed when capacity was reached because the ordinance provides that teenagers cannot leave and return to such a dance.

The county ordinance provides that the sheriff can refuse Fay another license for one year but this would be up to the discretion of the sheriff, according to County Counsel Bertram McLees. The attorney said that as the ordinance reads now, a qualified applicant who had no connection with Fay could apply for a similar license for the Fayaton building and that the sheriff's department would have to grant the license.

NEW BUS — The school bus committee of St. John of the Cross Catholic Church accepts the keys for a new school bus from Rt. Rev. Msgr. McDonagh, pastor of the church. The committee members from left to right are Ed Erautt, John Stenbeck, John Schwindler and Rubin Ledesma. Ledesma, president of the bus committee, said that funds from last year's turkey dinner were used toward the purchase of the bus. The committee extended its thanks to the Lemon Grove families who helped by attending and working at the dinner.

Monte Vista Team Claims Grossmont League Title

The Monte Vista Monarch basketball team coached by William Gillespie claimed first Grossmont League title last Friday night by defeating defending SDIFC champion Helix 63-61. Last Tuesday the Monarchs had claimed a tie for the title by defeating the last place Granite Hills Eagles 76-40.

The Monarchs had little trouble clubbing the Eagles. Leading 18-9 at the end of the first quarter, Bill Gillespie's stalwarts moved farther ahead throughout the rest of the game. Gillespie unloaded his bench with two minutes left in the half. The first string started the third quarter, but gave way to the substitutes with two minutes left in the third quarter. In the fourth quarter, the second stringers played the last four minutes. Steve Womack had the best game of his career with twenty points. Larry Godley had thirteen, Dan Roberson and Tay twel- ataatk artoa jqu t w e l v e, Allen Phillips eleven, and Tay Finney ten. Steve Eckis had eleven point to lead Granite Hills. Allen Phillips and John Hantek led the Monarchs to a forty-one to twenty-six rebound lead with eight rebounds each.

By defeating the Helix Highlanders, the Monarchs gained revenge from last year, when the Highlanders nipped the Monarchs twice to win the league title. During the first half neither team could get much of a lead. In the early part of the fourth quarter the Monarchs moved to an eleven point lead. Then Helix started moving. With four seconds left in the game, the Monarchs led 63-61. Larry Bailey tossed a forty-foot shot for Helix that bounded off the rim, giving the Monarchs the title. Dan Roberson led the Monarchs with 21 points.

Young GOPs View Local Juveniles

Deputy Sheriff Edward Kohl was the guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Lemon Grove Young Republican Club Monday night. His topic, "The Problem of Juvenile Delinquency in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley communities," was followed by a discussion of positive things interested citizens could do to help our teenagers.

Kohl stressed that recent court decisions dealing with civil r i g h t s of the criminal have severely hampered law enforcement and have in effect allowed law breakers to go completely free to repeat crimes and to influence impressionable young people.

The community and its children will continue to be endangered by the criminal until citizens demand adequate protection through equitable but adequate laws. Right now, he added, Assemblyman Bill Barnes and Dick Donovan are introducing anti-obscenity bills, and YRs should back them all the way.

The Lemon Grove YRs meet every third Monday in the board room of the Lemon Grove Medical Group. All Lemon Grove school board candidates well be invited to speak at next month's meeting, just prior to the school board election. The club invites all interested Republicans between 18 and 39 to attend.

The membership unanimously approved a resolution supporting the President's current firm stand against the Communists in Viet Nam. The resolution, in part,urged President Johnson to stand firm in his decision to take stronger measures in order to protect the free world from Communist aggression. The resolution further pointed out that "the Communists have always backed down when the United States Government stands firm against aggression.", and noted that there is currently an attempt, both nationally and worldwide by left wing pacifist and communist oriented groups, on our Government via demonstrations against our current US policy in Viet Nam in the hopes of forcing the abondonment of this current firm policy.

1965 Cover Picked For Mil Memorias

The staff of the 1965 Mil Memorias has made the choice of the cover for this year's annual. From four finalists Eileen Griffin, a junior, received the honor of having her effort chosen as the most suitable.

The majority of the entries were from the students of Ben Kiegle and Roger Moreau.

Other finalists beside Eileen were Marian Smith, Larry Calpito and Mary Westrup. Eileen's work was selected by the Mil Memorias editor Priscilla Morton and advisor Lowell Plinke, with Ben Kiegle and Roger Moreau acting as advisors.
